THE Emerald Club gave one of their popular entertainments at Neptune Hall last night. A large crowd was in attendance. The Mayville orchestra furnished delightful music and an unusually pleasant evening was spent by the audience.

Forty years' experience in every climate on earth has proved Ayer's Cherry Pectoral to be the most reliable remedy for colds, coughs, and all lung diseases. Neglected colds often become incurable ailments. Deal with them in time, and prevent their becoming deep-seated in the system.

"The ladies' blues 'em—it beats all! When they are young and aquiver, Their hearts are set upon the mill— When grown, upon the dollar."

Monday evening was a memorable occasion with the colored Masonic fraternity of this city. They held their installation services at Amazon Hall, and gave a grand entertainment. Hauck's Reed and Brass Band accompanied them to the hall and furnished "southern" music. Professor Venie's String Band was afterwards on hand to enliven the occasion. Perhaps the principal feature of the occasion was the address of Rev. Dr. Franklin, the orator of the evening. It was pronounced the ablest discourse ever delivered to a colored order in Mayville.

The Sabbath school entertainment on Christmas Eve at the Methodist Church, on Third street, was an enjoyable affair. The choir, assisted by Mr. Dye with the cornet, rendered exquisite music. Recitations of the ten commandments, and of "Angel and the Shepherds," from the Bible, were given by the pupils of the infant class elicited favorable comment. Also a charming recitation of a Christmas poem, by a lovely little miss from another class. Additional variety was given to the exercises by a young gentleman of the school, a pupil of Professor Kappes, most perfectly reciting the Lord's Prayer in German. A unique feature of the occasion was writing the Lord's Prayer on the blackboard in French by the Sunday School Secretary, Mr. Savary, and his reading it with the pure accent, only possible to one who has been taught it as his native tongue.

A bountiful treat of candies and foreign fruits was distributed to all.

Our citizens enjoyed last evening for the second time one of Mrs. Otton's delightful entertainments. The programme was a departure from Mrs. Otton's former role, and while treating her large audience to a feast of comedy and tragedy, her selections were entirely new, and so far as the artist is concerned, untried. "The Ride of Jennie McNeal," was rendered in such a manner as to captivate her hearers, and the continued applause gave token of the high esteem in which Mrs. Otton is held by a Mayville audience. "Juanita," in costume, was a fine portrayal of the alternate will and tender emotions of an Indian maiden, choosing between her lovers, and with Indian coquetry, putting the rival suitors to the test of daring to obtain her smiles. This role is new to Mrs. Otton, and the first time attempted, but it must be said to her praise, the difficult subject was most admirably handled. Mrs. Otton presented to her audience her young protegee, Miss Bishop, of Paris, Ky., who made her first bow before an audience, and it is not extravagant language to say that the young lady has a grand future before her, when, after proper teaching, the great merits of her voice is fairly developed. Paris will open her eyes to behold a radiant jewel which has been buried in obscurity and long neglected. Miss Benjamin, of Cincinnati, Ohio, as a flutist, has few equals, and her hearers sat entranced as she filled the air with the liquid notes from that sweet instrument. Miss Mand Stout, as "Little Gipsy Jane," acquitted herself admirably. Space will not admit of a lengthy sketch of Mrs. Otton's entertainment. Taken altogether, it was such as only she can give.

His studio is still at No. 163 West Fifth street, where he is ever ready to welcome his Mayville friends. He is enjoying a good business, and thinks portrait painting gets away with clerking in a clothing house every time.

He is Now Learning How to Refine Sugar.

In a pleasant chat with Mr. Adolph L. Beltran, son of R. Beltran, Esq., commission merchant on Decatur street, the fortunate holder of one-fifth of ticket No. 94,352, winning $75,000 in November drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, stated that he is a native of New Orleans, and is in the laboratory of the Planters' Sugar Refinery, learning the business, and that the sudden accumulation of wealth will in no way affect his resolution to master his adopted profession. —New Orleans (La.) Picayune, Nov. 13th.

Another Rich Plun.

The Baptists did not forget their pastor this Christmas, as the state of his pantry abundantly proves. He was made glad by the reception of several barrels of flour, hams, groceries, cakes, &c., from the kind friends in his congregation. This church evidently knows how to treat a pastor. Only a few weeks ago they sent Hechinger word to arrest Mr. Garrett and to take his measure. The result of this violent proceeding was one of Hechinger's finest $40 overcoats, which the pastor has been wearing since.

Whatever may be the faults of our Mayville people, it can never be charged upon them that they do not treat their preachers right.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYBLICK.
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Layman near here was the scene of a delightful Christmas dinner party, participated in by about twenty young couples who gathered there through the courtesy of Miss Annie and Belle, their generous, charming daughters. The dining apartment resembled some of the scenes of old-time with its long table laden with choicest edibles, and groups of merry, laughing guests, and the faintest of a fire, while, carol-playing, dancing and croquet were the features of the evening. Not until the coming of the Sabbath morn did the joyous assembly disperse, and even then most reluctantly were the farewells given.

A SECRET MADE PUBLIC.

THE MESSAGE SENT TO THE EXECUTIVE SESSION OF THE SENATE.

President Cleveland's Reasons for Renominating Recorder Matthews After His Formal Rejection By the Senate—Various Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—The president's reasons for renominating Recorder Matthews after his formal rejection by the senate were given in a formal letter accompanying the second nomination. This message has been treated as a part of the secrets of the executive session and has therefore been withheld from the public. The letter is as follows:

"To the Senate of the United States: I nominate James C. Matthews, of New York, to be recorder of deeds in the District of Columbia, in place of Frederick Douglass, resigned. This nomination was sent to the senate at its last session upon the retirement of the previous incumbent, who, for a number of years have held the office to which it refers. In the last days of the session the senate declined to confirm the nomination. Opposition to the appointment of Mr. Matthews to the office for which he was named was developed among the citizens of the District of Columbia, and upon the ground that the nominee was not a resident of the district, and it is supposed that such opposition, to some extent at least, influenced the determination of the question of his confirmation."

"Mr. Matthews has now been in occupancy of the office to which he was nominated for more than four months, and he has, in the performance of the duties thereof, won the approval of all those having business to transact with the office, and has rendered important service in rescuing the records of the district from loss and illegibility. I am informed that his management of this office has removed much of the opposition to his appointment which has heretofore existed."

"I have ventured, therefore, in view of the demonstrated fitness of this nominee, and with the understanding that the objections heretofore urged against his selection have, to a great extent, subsided, and confiding in the desire to co-operate in tendering to our colored fellow-citizens just recognition and the utmost good faith, to again submit this nomination to the senate for confirmation, at the same time declaring any intention to question its previous action in the premises."

—JAMES C. CLEVELAND.

California Wheat Estimate.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Mr. Dodge, stationer of the department of agriculture, says in regard to the extravagant estimate of wheat production in California, which has been stated at 67,000,000 bushels, that it is at least 20,000,000 bushels too high, and that the crop of that state is considerably less than estimated every year, the excess averaging not less than 20 per cent. for ten years past. This, he asserts, is proved by the fact of consumption and exportation.

"A Liberal, Positive, Unqualified Lie."
WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Senator McPherson was shown a Trueman dispatch which was saying that he was to take Mr. Matthews' place as secretary of the treasury. Mr. McPherson wrote the following indorsement on the slip from the Post: "A liberal, positive, unqualified lie. I never said it and there is not a grain of truth in the report, by who ever made it."

Henry George, John MacMakin, David Healy, Samuel Bompass, Patrick Ford and others, are expected to address the meeting. Gaybert S. Barnes, secretary of the Land and Labor party, says: "There is great danger in the theory that a necessity exists for increasing the military as an aid to the civil administration. It is a theory based on the idea that the people are fools. The belief is a greater menace to anarchy than layabouts are."

Financial Embarrassments in Boston.
BOSTON, Dec. 29.—Daily & Co., fancy goods dealers of Boston Court and Springfield, Ill., and Wichita, Kan., have made an assignment. Liabilities $60,000.

A Terror to the Town.
TOLSON, Ill., Dec. 29.—A gang of toughs who escaped here eight weeks ago, while being taken to the jail at Urbana, are terrorizing the village.
